1. Purpose and Scope

The purpose of the Enrolment Policy is to ensure that enrolments for programs are completed correctly, accurately and in accordance with the National Vocational Regulator standards, the Department of Training and Workforce Development, and relevant Professional Bodies.

This policy applies to all prospective participants enrolling in Navitas Professional (NP) programs and all staff involved in the selection and admission of participants.

2. Policy

NP will ensure that all applicants seeking admission are treated fairly and equitably.

2.1. Pre-enrolment

2.1.1. Potential applicants will apply using the relevant Program application form, providing all information requested including certified copies of required documents as follows:

- Academic transcripts;
- Eligible Visa or Bridging Visa;
- Evidence of English Language proficiency;
- Valid skills assessment from the relevant professional body (Professional Year Program only);
- A Cover letter outlining the reasons why they wish to apply for the program;
- A current CV/resume;
- Legible copy of the Photo page of their passport, ensuring the photo is visible and clear; and
- Proof of application fee payment.

Note: All applications for the Engineers Australia's Professional Year in Engineering will be processed by Engineering Education Australia

2.1.2. Applicants will be interviewed either in person or by phone by Navitas Professional (NP) Business Development Consultants (BDCs). Note: Industry Placement Coordinators (IPCs) must also attend ACS and EEA interviews.

2.2. Enrolment

2.2.1. The relevant Program Application Form will be completed by the applicant including a declaration for Navitas Professional to obtain a Unique Student Identifier on their behalf, if required.

2.2.2. The state office administration team will verify the identification of all applicants by obtaining a copy of the applicant's ID and completing the relevant sections on the Program Application Form.

- 2.2.3. Applicants with previous VET qualifications or who have studied other VET programs or applicants with significant prior work experience may apply for course credit or Recognition of Prior Learning through the Credit Transfer Policy or RPL Policy as appropriate.
- 2.2.4. Applicant details are entered onto NP's Student Management System by the Program Services Officer.
- 2.2.5. Successful applicants will be sent a Letter of Offer which outlines the tuition fees to be paid.
- 2.2.6. Applicants who have been deemed eligible to commence a program who have incomplete documentation and/or outstanding documentation may be given a Conditional Letter of Offer with approval from the State Operations Manager.
- 2.2.7. Once all required documentation has been provided and payment has been received the successful applicant will be sent a Confirmation of Enrolment letter which includes the program start date, end date (subject to change), program details, participant details and program fee details and/or payment plan.

Orientation letters are also sent to participants as part of the enrolment confirmation.
